Multi-stakeholder Forum

Addressing hate speech through education

When: 30 September to 1st October 2021

Where: Online Multi-stakeholder Forum

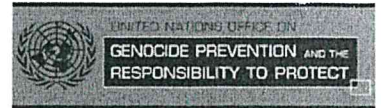

Hate speech is on the rise worldwide, with the potential to incite violence, undermine social cohesion and tolerance, and cause psychological, emotional and physical harm based on xenophobia, racism, antisemitism, anti-Muslim hatred and other forms of intolerance and discrimination (UN, 2020). History has shown us that genocide and other atrocity crimes begin with words – there is a collective responsibility to address hate speech in the present day to prevent further violence in the future.

As part of the implementation of the United Nations Strategy and Plan of Action on Hate Speech, UNESCO in partnership with the United Nations Office on the Prevention of Genocide and the Responsibility to Protect (OSAPG) will convene the 'Global Education Ministers Conference on addressing hate speech through education'. The Multi-stakeholder Forum will encompass two days of online dialogues, bringing together educators, civil society organizations, human rights experts, tech and social media companies, youth and government representatives, with a view to promote meaningful engagement and identify key recommendations for a way forward.

You are strongly encouraged to save the date, as well as promote the Multi-stakeholder Forum among your constituencies and networks. For further information visit here and for specific questions email: gced@unesco.org

Forum multipartite

Lutter contre les discours de haine par l'éducation

Quand : Du 30 septembre au 1er octobre 2021

Où : Forum multipartite en ligne

Les discours de haine sont en augmentation dans le monde entier, avec le potentiel d'inciter à la violence, de saper la cohésion sociale et la tolérance, et de causer des dommages psychologiques, émotionnels et physiques basés sur la xénophobie, le racisme, l'antisémitisme, la haine antimusulmane et d'autres formes d'intolérance et de discrimination (ONU, 2020). L'histoire nous a montré que les génocides et autres crimes d'atrocité commencent toujours par des mots, il y a une responsabilité collective à s'attaquer aux discours de haine aujourd'hui pour prévenir d'autres violences à venir.

Dans le cadre de la mise en œuvre de la stratégie et du plan d'action des Nations Unies pour la lutte contre les discours de haine, l'UNESCO organisera, en partenariat avec le Bureau des Nations Unies pour la prévention du génocide et de la responsabilité de protéger, la Conférence mondiale des ministres de l'éducation sur la lutte contre les discours de haine par l'éducation. Le forum multipartite comprendra deux jours de dialogues en ligne, réunissant des éducateurs, des organisations de la société civile, des experts en droits de l'homme, des entreprises de technologie et de réseaux sociaux, des jeunes et des représentants des gouvernements, dans le but de promouvoir un engagement significatif et d'identifier des recommandations clés pour aller de l'avant.

Nous vous encourageons vivement à noter cette date, ainsi qu'à promouvoir le Forum multipartite auprès de vos réseaux et contacts. Pour plus d'informations, visitez cette page et pour toute question, envoyez un courriel à : gced@unesco.org

Foro Multi-actoral

Combatir los discursos de odio a través de la educación

Cuándo: del 30 de septiembre al 1 de octubre de 2021

Dónde: Foro Multi-actoral en línea

Los discursos de odio están aumentando en todo el mundo, con el potencial de incitar a la violencia, socavar la cohesión social y la tolerancia, y causar daños psicológicos, emocionales y físicos basados en la xenofobia, el racismo, el antisemitismo, el odio antimusulmán y otras formas de intolerancia y discriminación (ONU, 2020). La historia nos ha demostrado que el genocidio y otros crímenes atroces comienzan con las palabras: existe la responsabilidad colectiva de hacer frente al discurso del odio hoy para prevenir más violencia en el futuro.

En el marco de la aplicación de la Estrategia y Plan de Acción de las Naciones Unidas para la lucha contra el discurso de odio, la UNESCO, en colaboración con la Oficina de las Naciones Unidas para la Prevención del Genocidio y la Responsabilidad de Proteger (OSAPG), convocará la Conferencia Mundial de Ministros de Educación sobre la lucha contra el discurso de odio a través de la educación. El Foro Multi-actoral abarcará dos días de diálogos en línea, reuniendo a educadores, organizaciones de la sociedad civil, expertos y expertas en derechos humanos, empresas tecnológicas y de medios sociales, jóvenes y representantes gubernamentales, con el fin de promover un compromiso significativo e identificar recomendaciones clave para el camino a seguir.

Les instamos a que apunten esta fecha en sus calendarios y a que promuevan el Foro Multi-actoral en sus redes y contactos. Para más información, visiten esta página y, no duden en contactarnos para cualquier pregunta, enviando un correo electrónico a: gced@unesco.org
